

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

V.

ORDER

This  2018, came the Attorney for the Commonwealth and the defendant,  (DOB: ), who stands indicted for one felony, to-wit: Count 1: Impede Blood Circulation Respiration, who appeared in Court according to the conditions of his recognizance, and came also Kimberly Stover and  his attorneys.

Upon, the continuance of Court, both the Commonwealth and the defendant presented closing arguments. After closing arguments, the jury were instructed.

Whereupon, the jury reconvened to deliberate and after the jurors were sent to the jury room to consider their verdict. They subsequently returned their verdict in open court, in the following words:

“We, the Jury, find the defendant, , NOT GUILTY of strangulation as charged in the indictment.”

Date:  2018

Foreman:

Thereupon, the jury was discharged. It is considered by the Court that this defendant stands acquitted of the charges in accordance with the verdict of the jury.

The Court certifies that at all times during the trial of this case the defendant was personally present and his attorneys were likewise personally present and capably represented the defendant.

And the defendant is allowed to depart according to the terms and conditions of his recognizance.

_____
Lisa B. Kemler, Judge

Entered: , 2018